Dear Justices,
   Let me start out by saying "I DON'T MIND PAYING MY FAIR SHARE".
   Wouldn't it be easier and far less complicated just to divide the weekly support by seven and give back to the noncustodial parent 1/7 for every overnight?
   There used to be a rule of thumb called K.I.S.S. (keep it simple stupid). Why make things harder than they need to be? Thank you for your time.
